

Clifford, and at present is properly known as Elkdale ... The post office was established at the store of G. G. Wells in December 1877 as a private office but since 1881 has been a regular office in the postal service. The firm of Gould & Phelps not only operated the mills but also distilled liquor & had a store In 1831 the McAlla Brothers (John, James, and William) became the owners of the mills and distillery, which they carried on extensively, the latter until 1857. In its best days, the mill had 3 runs of stones and had a large capacity...
